

Queer Theor(ies) January Intercession - 2019 Dr. Calabretta-Sajder

GNST 4983: Special Topics in Gender Studies
WLLC 575v: Special Investigations

May 13 - May 24
9am-12:45pm

Course Overview:

In this interdisciplinary course, students will be introduced to key themes and critical frameworks in the overlapping fields of Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender (LGBT) Studies, Queer Studies, and Queer Theory within a transnational context.

Topics within the course include the following: early and contemporary histories of sexuality; politics of sexuality and sexual identities; forms of oppression including heterosexism, homophobia, and transphobia; violence against LGBTQ individuals and communities; queer activism; diverse experiences of sexuality; and representations in literature, art, and popular media.

For more information, contact Dr. Calabretta-Sajder (calabret@uark.edu)